Triumph.ai

Please read these Terms and Conditions carefully before availing project outsourcing services from Triumph.ai. By engaging our services, you agree to the following terms and conditions:

Confidentiality:
You acknowledge that the project developed by Triumph.ai is for your personal academic use only. You agree not to discuss, share, or disclose the project, in whole or in part, to any college stakeholders, including faculty members, administrators, or fellow students. Any breach of this confidentiality agreement may result in the cancellation of project delivery.

Non-Refundable Fees:
The fees charged for the project services are non-refundable under any circumstances. Once the payment is made, it is considered as the acceptance of our terms and conditions. No refund of the charged fees will be given at any cost.

Intellectual Property Rights:
Triumph.ai retains all intellectual property rights of the project developed for you. You are granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the project for your personal academic purposes only. You agree not to reproduce, distribute, or publish the project without obtaining prior written permission from Triumph.ai.

Data Protection:
Triumph.ai takes data protection seriously. We adhere to applicable data protection laws and regulations. Any personal or sensitive information shared with us during the project development process will be treated confidentially and securely.

Modification of Terms:
Triumph.ai reserves the right to modify or update these terms and conditions at any time without prior notice. It is your responsibility to review and comply with the most recent version of the terms and conditions.

Limitation of Liability:
Triumph.ai shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, or exemplary damages arising from or in connection with the project outsourcing services, including but not limited to project delivery delays or disruptions.
